1. Round 3 Opioid Funding Approval

Public Health Educator, Jenna Stephenson, and Public Health Nursing Supervisor, Kristin Deacon, came forward with the request to approve round 3 of the Opioid funding. Stephenson brought forward that the subcommittee met on June 2nd and is requesting approval of the recommendations. There was a total of $742,394.61 in total applications for this round. The subcommittee recommended eight applications. Edgerton Public School for funding a social worker salary in the amount of $24,779.00. Marshall Police Department for Inseyets Pro in the amount of $15,800.00. Reunited for a sober living expansion in the amount of $70,000. Sanford Luverne for Naloxone Boxes in the amount of $15.00. Southwest/West Central Service Cooperative for PATH curriculum and implantation in the amount of $25,000. Western Mental Health for two new LADC positions totaling $163,924.39. Women's Rural Advocacy Program for Bridges to healing in the amount of $50,3461,.61. Southwest Health and Human Services for $50,000 for community awareness campaign. Stephenson stated next steps would be notifying all applicants of the award status via email, obtain signed grant agreements from the awarded application. She would also notify the previous awardees of lapsed funds and close out any exhausted Round 1 and 2 accounts. Stephenson will update the Community Health Board of the current balance available for Round 4. Deacon invited the Board to the Opioid Advisory Council meeting on October 15, 2025 at the Lyon County Courthouse 2nd floor from 1:00-3:00. Motion by Commissioner Draper, second by Commissioner Overgaard to approve the recommendations as presented. The Motion carried unanimously.

Chairperson Burger asked if there was anything further to bring to the Board. Hearing nothing, he adjourned the meeting at 10:17 am.
